

Effective Communication and Difficult Conversations

Fall 2024

Tuesday, October 8
12:00 pm–1:15 pm
Kuykendall 106 Events Room

Difficult conversations are an inevitable aspect of teaching. Whether it's leading discussions in class or dealing with classroom management, these conversations are crucial for establishing classroom community and student success. In this session, we'll delve into effective strategies for handling difficult conversations in your classroom and with your students, ensuring constructive outcomes and maintaining healthy relationships.
